The TAMMY HOWL is a Gulf Park College publication that is printed at the Dixie Press in Gulfport, Mississippi. It is sent to approximately 10,000 alumnae and prospective students. There are two editions each year.

The 1970-71 editor is Janie Harper, a sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper of Lexington, Kentucky. This is the second year she had edited the Tammy Howl.

The entire staff greets students, faculty, administration, and alumnae for the 1970-71 term.

President Robert L. Johnson

President's Message

Much publicity has recently been given to the plight of American colleges and universities. Seventy-five per cent have financial problems, especially private institutions.

Gulf Park College will face serious financial problems next year if a full student body is not recruited. Our operation is costly because of the extremely individualized instruction offered and because no financial assistance has ever been accepted from government agencies.

Rather than lower standards or increase the size of classes we are determined to maintain the quality and type of education offered for the past fifty years.

Will you pledge your services in an all-out effort to locate prospective students for next year? The continued reputation of Gulf Park College, as a fine school for young women, is at stake.

Robert L. Johnson
President

Editorial

It is more important than ever for an individual to stand up for what he believes in. The numerous controversial issues of our times cry out for opinions and attitudes to support or refute them. A narrow realm of prevalent thought is developed when a person chooses to silence his personal beliefs. Backbone is essentially the key to justifying man's position in debatable situations. Without this, there is not much hope for a clear perspective of public voice or desire.

I certainly hope that college students will use the campus society as one to practice in as people who are able to voice their opinions and stand up for their beliefs. Gaining in this manner would be a true tribute to the world.

A POTPOURRI OF OPENING EVENTS

Students are welcomed by faculty at a formal reception given early in September. The annual reception was given in the front court yard of Hardy Hall.

Below, students wave a farewell after boarding a ship to Ship Island. The trip was one of the year's first activities.

Speaking of Entertainment

The first coffee house presented by the Jet Maskers was held Friday night, October 2, in the student parking lot. The Keesler Male Chorus, from Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, opened the show of 17 acts by Gulf Park students and Keesler talent. The acts included vocal selections, dances and dramatic pieces. Following the show refreshments were served and there was dancing. WLOX disc jockeys played records to conclude the evenings activities. Right, Barbie Baker sings. Below, Judy John of Crowley, Louisiana, performs a pantomime program given by the Speech Department.

STYLE SHOW TALENT -- Furnishing entertainment during Panhellenic sponsored style show Nov. 12 were Candy Smith (left), Lexington, Ky., and Robin Mattingly, Cincinatti, Ohio. Clothes, furnished by Budd's Ltd. of Long Beach, were modeled by Gulf Park sorority members.

Dr. Pierce Speaks on Education

(This is an article written for the Tides by Dr. David Pierce, academic dean of Gulf Park College.)

BY DR. DAVID PIERCE

As a fundamental human right, it should be possible for each person to acquire the maximum amount of formal education and practical training from which he is capable of profiting. In all cases individual capacities and aspirations for learning should be evaluated for the purpose of assisting the student in recognizing his limitations and in establishing realistic educational and career goals.

Most educational institutions, whether elite universities or trade schools, must of necessity specialize in their program offerings and the range of students served.

While the human intellectual capacity and the learning experiences available at the higher education span a broad spectrum, it is likely that for every student who has proven that he can profit from education beyond the high school, there is a college or type of college which can most nearly fulfill his needs.

It is the moral obligation of a given institution to seek and enroll only those students for whom it can offer an academic program and a social climate in which they have a reasonable chance to succeed. This involves a continuous evaluation and improvement of institutional policy, practices, facilities, and staff with the end of achieving the highest possible educational efficiency and a proper balance of emphasis on the various aspects, of a college's program, which contribute to a student's physical, social, intellectual, and spiritual development.

An overemphasis on any single component in the life of an institution will in all probability be discriminating against a significant portion of the college community.

A definite goal of higher education should be the encouragement of a free exchange of ideas between and among all levels. Such an exchange would normally include a presentation of the absolute principles common to the ethics of one's religion along with opportunities to test these beliefs against the teachings and practices of other faiths and societies.

Adherence to the stated and published rules of a college as well as its standards of excellence should be expected of all students and employees. A student or faculty member who through indifference, rebellious acts, or lack of initiative and diligence fails to support the policies of the institution should, after due process has been followed, expect to forfeit his right to further membership in the college community.

A set of values which includes a recognition of the worth and dignity of every human being and his inherent right to pursue knowledge and to abide in his faith is a requisite for anyone who would attempt to shape the lives and minds of his fellowmen.

TURNER NAMED BOARD CHAIRMAN

Mr. F. Macrae Turner, Jr., is the new chairman of the Board of Trustees at Gulf Park. He succeeds Mr. Harold R. Barber.

Mr. Barber, president of Coast Federal Savings and Loan Association has been chairman for twenty years.

President Johnson said "Mr. Barber's service has been long and distinguished. He worked with every president Gulf Park has had -- seven in all. He played an important role in the educational and physical growth of the college."

A native of Gulfport, Mr. Turner holds the bachelor of laws degrees from Tulane and the University of Mississippi. He is a member of the State Bar Association. He is also an elder in the First Presbyterian Church, Gulfport, and serves as president of the United Fund of Harrison County.

Courses Added

Nine new courses have been added to enrich Gulf Park's curriculum and add to the opportunities of higher education this year. The courses are:

The American Way -- an approach to social studies in relation to current events; identity lab -- a workshop concerning self identity; journalism -- instruction dealing with college publications; photography -- a course that teaches both taking and developing methods; physical science -- a basic natural science course; general education math -- concerning the needs of an elementary education major; first aid -- a standard Red Cross course; physical fitness; and theatrical directing, involving the principles of directing play production.

Houston Ballet Performs

Gulf Park's Artists Series presented the Houston Ballet to a standing room only audience Tuesday, Nov. 3, in the Biloxi High School auditorium.

The company received a standing ovation for their presentation of a ballet in five parts -- Design With Strings, Flower Festival at Genzano, Caprichos, Impressions and Pas De Dix.

After the program the dancers were honored at a dinner-reception at the Gulfport dance studio of Mrs. Delia Stewart, dance instructor at Gulf Park.

Sadler Appointed Counselor

Former Gulf Park President William T. Sadler has been appointed director of off-campus counseling at Florida State University, Tallahassee.

Robert Kimmer, acting vice president of student affairs at Florida State, said that Mr. Sadler was director of financial aid at the university during 1965-66, "and has a broad administrative experience which will make an important contribution to the university."

Mr. Kimmer also announced that Mrs. Sadler, former Gulf Park faculty member, is now secretary to the director of international admissions at FSU. Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Sadler's youngest son, is attending his first year of high school in Tallahassee and another son, George, is enrolled at Tallahassee Junior College. Eldest son Billy lives on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

RULES ARE CHANGING

The Student Government changed and revised three rules concerning student social life. The rule changes were announced in October by S.G.A. president Robin McDonald.

The first rule revised, changed the curfew from 9:00 pm to 10:00 pm Monday through Thursday. The second rule change made it no longer necessary for students to double date on the first two dates with a young man.

The parents are now able to decide whether or not their daughter may leave campus for over night visits or weekend trips without written permission.

"These rules changes", Miss McDonald said, "are expected to be obeyed and not taken advantage of, and the others are to be observed as usual. She also added that new and hopeful changes will take place during the year.

Sara Ruffin (Chantal) practices training her husband, Rick Randig (Gene).

MERCHANDIZING STUDENTS TRAVEL TO DALLAS

Nineteen members of Gulf Park's merchandising department traveled to Dallas, Texas, October 23, to attend the spring market at the Dallas Apparel Mart, the world's largest. The students stayed at the Adolphus Hotel in downtown Dallas.

The girls visited the Celanese Fabric showroom and the Springmaid showroom on Friday afternoon.

The department devoted the next day to shopping in numerous stores in Dallas. The highlights of the day included a tour of Neiman-Marcus, lunch in the Zodiac Room, and a glimpse at Tea Room modeling. That evening two professional models from Neiman-Marcus spoke to the students about modeling as a career.

Each girl was assigned to a Mississippi Coast buyer to tour the mart Sunday and to observe the methods of buying.

The Dupont fashion show was that evening, and consisted of the best lines from each designer.

Nardis of Dallas, manufacturing company, was visited by the students Monday. The entire method of manufacturing clothes was demonstrated for the girls and their sponsor, Miss Brock.

After shopping around Dallas, Tuesday, the girls headed back to Gulf Park by plane. Libby Trotter, a sophomore from Knoxville, Tenn., commented on the excursion, "I felt that the Dallas trip proved that experience is the best teacher. Observing the different methods of buying and selling was a very rewarding endeavor."

"IF A MAN ANSWERS" Presented

The Jet Masker's first major production, IF A MAN ANSWERS, was presented November 19, 20, and 21, in the Gulf Park Little Theater.

The play, a comedy in three acts, evolves around the romantic problems of Chantal Stacey, a young half French, half Bostonian girl. Chantal is constantly struggling between the moral ideals of her Boston born father and her French mother while searching for a husband and a happy marriage. After finally finding a mate, her mother tells her the secret of a happy marriage, "Treat your husband like a dog". Many hysterical conflicts develope and resolve with the characters living happily ever after.

The cast:

Sara Ruffin as Chantal Stacey, Phil Ambler as John Stacey, Ann Davis as Germaine Stacey, Janet Morgan as Tina Brooks, Rick Randig as Gene Wright, Lisa Stevenson as Miss Kaye, Bob Harrison as Mr. Chadwick, James Reed as Robert Swan, Nancee Raynes as Concita, Jamie Owen as Salome, Barbour Strater as Belladonna, Penny Stroud as Europa, Bob Carbrey as the Flower Shop Clerk, Evelyn James as Eleanor and Miss Stone, and Joanna Dean as Grace.

Mr. Charles Lembright was the Director and was assisted by Leslie Robinson. Robert Shelton was responsible for Scenic Design.

BIT AND SPUR KEEPS MOVING

Members of the Bit and Spur Club have been kept on the move attending horse shows in Alabama and Louisiana.

Mobile, Alabama, hosted the Lucky D Horse Show. Gulf Park horsewoman, Merry Rousse, Baton Rouge, La., received honors of first in open pleasure class riding Lagrimas, first in open pleasure class, and third in halter class, also on Lagrimas. The horse Lagrimas was awarded the high point trophy during the show.

The next stop was New Orleans for the Saint Martins' Horse Show held Sept. 26, 27, 28. Leslie Robinson, Apapka, Fla., riding Tiny Little Bars, received first place in the novice hunter division. Merry Rousse, riding Beau, placed second in the amateur three-gaited class and with a new mount, Judy Merry captured a third in the open pleasure class.

On October 3, an amateur horse show was held in Audubon Park, New Orleans. Leslie Robinson and Tiny Little Bars won second in the hunter under saddle class. In the open pleasure class, Merry Rousse, riding Judy, placed second, and Nancy Well placed eighth on Jewel.

The club attended a show in Folsen, La., on October 18. In the green working hunter class, Vicki Shogry, Charleston, S.C., won first riding Whisper, while Merry Rousse was busy taking another two ribbons, second in open pleasure, and third in the amateur three-gaited class.

Selling candy to raise money for a canvas to take to the horse shows, trips to Huckleberry Hill, trail rides, and overnight campouts are planned by the Bit and Spur Club, and Miss Bruce Wilder, the club's sponsor.

Panhellenic Sponsors Movies

In cooperation with Dean of Students, Audrey Cullen, the Panhellenic Council has launched a film series to provide entertainment on campus.

The season opener, Dark at the Top of the Stairs, was sponsored by Theta Alpha sorority.

Davey Pierce, son of Academic Dean David Pierce, was projectionist for the movie.

January is the tentative month for continuation of the Gulf Park film series.

Just Coasting

Gulf Park has a television program each Monday morning at 7:30 a.m., Channel 13, WLOX, in Biloxi, granted a half hour time slot to the college. This program provides publicity for the activities and functions of the various departments at Gulf Park.

Sixty Three Girls Enjoy Pensacola

Sixty-three Gulf Park girls attended a Regimental weekend at the Pensacola Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Florida on the weekend of December 5-6.

The girls were entertained at a soccer game and at the A.O.C. club on Saturday afternoon and that evening attended the Regimental Ball.

Following church services on Sunday, the girls and their dates danced and brunched at the A.O.C. club. Afterward the buses were loaded and returned to Gulf Park.

SORORITY ACTIVITIES BLOSSOM

Rush parties were held in the latter part of September. The first two parties were given by Delta Alpha and Theta Alpha. Delta Alpha's theme dealt with the New Orleans French Quarter. Rushees were served punch, pretzels, chips with dip, nuts and were given zodiac matchbooks for favors.

Theta Alpha's party theme was centered around their mascot, the owl. Punch, candy, cup cakes and chips were served and owl matchbooks were favors.

Sponsor of the club is Miss Wilkinson.

Imperatives for Peace

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying: '. . . on earth peace, good will among men.' "

P is purity, perception, and purpose: "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

E is eager and earnest endeavor -- life for Eternity.

A is adoration, 'Come, let us worship."

C is comradeship, counsel, and courage.

E is excellence: "Be ye therefore perfect."

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS, FOR THEY SHALL BE CALLED THE CHILDREN OF GOD.

Anna Mae Helton
Christmas, 1970

Have a Happy Holy Day;

Can't make ends meet?
Get off your own and try harder.

Good work results when knowledge is combined with practice.

A word to the wise is sufficient. Are you the wise one?

The unkind word that remains unspoken cannot start a quarrel..

The grandfather of Alfred Tennyson told the young poet, "There that's the first money you ever earned by your poetry, and take my word for it, it will be the last."

Tennyson became poet laureate of England.

The history and meaning of Christmas have always gleamed with light. Not only did the Wise Men follow the light of a star to the manger, but they came at a time of year when candles burned in the Holy Land in celebration of Chanukah, the Jewish Festival of Lights.

Anthropologist Margaret Mead has warned students about choosing the "outcast position." Those who do, she points out, "suffer extreme risks of illness, hopeless drug addiction, a criminal record, and physical damage."

It would seem that if one wanted to be anti-something, he should not be anti-himself.

Wisdom without action is treasure . . . buried.

Some years ago, in New York City, the nine-year-old nephew of a college professor was asked to suggest a name for a very large number. The youngster came up with the word "googol," which dictionaries now define as the number 1 followed by 100 zeroes. Later, the same youth went on to coin the name of an even larger number: "googolplex." To capture this digital monster on paper, he told his uncle, you start with a googol and then keep adding zeroes until you get tired.

Dear Editor:

We in Houston have been busy this past year contacting Gulf Park exes in the area and forming an alumnae group. We had luncheons in January and April then were included in Dede Pranke and Mary Lou Pegler's August get-together for the Houston girls attending GPC this Sept. Our most recent function was a luncheon meeting October 29.

Mrs. Marge Pegler, Admissions Counselor for this area, has been busy meeting high school juniors and seniors, telling them about the school. She has been instrumental in planning our January 2 holiday fete at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Pranke where we alumnae and the girls who are home for the holidays will have an opportunity to meet the prospective students and their mothers. Marge tells us Mr. Frank Bettencourt whose two daughters attended GPC will bring some of his orchestra and entertain us musically that day.

Jane Robinson LaForce (Mrs. A. H., II) 13618 Pebblebrook, Houston 77024 is our membership chairman.

This is a reminder to put an article in the Tammy Howl notifying the Senior class of 1958 that they have contributed 200 dollars to the Hurricane Fund. If possible to be used on repair of the platform and steps of the Friendship Oak.

Letters For Alums

Hi!

Just a note - don't seem to know anyone there now.

Jean Johnson from Iowa (now Harrison) lived here for some time - may still be here but since "Celia" our phones have been rather out-of-sorts -- do you know what I mean?

We survived beautifully - I can't believe my house was so lucky - daughter Patti is a junior in the University of Houston - a Delta Gamma - majoring in Special Education - and youngest son Mike is a freshman in Del Mar College here in town. Oldest son Larry lives in Gulfport, is married and the father of my adorable granddaughter, Michelle, aged 4! Need I say more???

I love the Tammy - only problem is - we oldies are getting so old there's little news of us!

Dorothy Ann O'Neal

I had a baby boy, March 4, 1970. His name is Mark Raiford Williamson; he is named for his Aunt Markie Lindley (GPC 1965-66). My husband Billy is manager of Begley's Patterson Drug Store at Meadowbrook Mart.

I had a nice letter from Carly Mason, my roommate at GPC. She is working in Anchorage, Alaska for an oil firm. I hope she will stop by on her way back from Hawaii.

Dear Alumnae Office,

What has happened to the news of the "old Girls" who went to school at Gulf Park in 1925 on? I graduated from high school in 1928, after going there three years and I miss reading about that group. There are several of us in Calif. and others I keep in touch with, whom, I'm sure would be glad to contribute to hear news of our class.

If the records were destroyed, can't we get a list together and start getting news of the high school and junior college students of the early days?

I live in Anaheim, Calif. now and would like to be of some help in co-ordinating a list.
